

National Commission for Minorities gets new Zoroastrian (Parsi)
Member

Mr. Kersi K Deboo assumed charge as Zoroastrian (Parsi) Member in the National Commission for Minorities on November 24, 2021.

Mr. Kersi K Deboo is an Advocate and a social worker from Navsari, Gujarat. He has been appointed as a Zoroastrian (Parsi) Member of National Commission for Minorities by Central Government's notification dated November 16, 2021.

He is an ex-director of Gujarat Minorities Finance and Development Corporation (2011 to 2015) – formerly Minority Commission of Gujarat. He is a honorary secretary of the Indian Red Cross Society, Navsari District Branch. He is a trustee of Rotary Eye Institute and College of Ophthalmology and is a treasurer of Manav Rog Nivaran Mandal (working for leprosy and malnutrition).

He is also a trustee of R.F. Daboo Parsi General Hospital of Navsari, Garda College Trust and Navsari Kelvani Mandal (Managing four schools).

He is past president of Lions Club of Navsari. He is also a columnist in various newspapers. His hobbies include writing short stories and doing research on history of Navsari, Gujarat, having written more than 300 articles on Navsari and on other historic topics. He is also a cartoonist, photographer and is passionate about animal welfare.

*****