

Success in the case of grant of a National award to Mst. Priyam and Mst. Pratham Tated for their successive outstanding performance in the field of sports in national and international events

One Shri Mahender Tated, a Jain minority resident of Visakhapatnam (AP) met Shri Sunil Singhi in the office with the request that NCM may kindly take up the grant of a National award to his children Mst. Priyam and Mst. Pratham Tated for their successive outstanding performance in the field of sports in national and international events.

2. Ministry of Women & Child Development, Government of India has constituted a national child award for outstanding children excelling in various disciplines since the year 1996. The Award is presented to outstanding children during the respective years.

3. Accordingly, the case was taken up by writing to the Hon'ble Union Minister of Women & Child by Shri Sunil Singhi, Hon'ble Member, National Commission for Minorities to consider to grant National Child Award to these outstanding children belonging to the minority community (Jain), considering their consistent performance by representing not only the State of Andhra Pradesh but in National and International Roller/figure Skating Championships over the years.

4. The nodal ministry in response and in recognition of the exceptional achievement, has conferred on Mst. Priyam Tated the prestigious 'Pradhan Mantri Rashtriya Bal Puraskar 2019' award for his performance of having won over 50 combinations of medals each, in Gold, Silver and Bronze by his regular participation in such championships and bringing all round glory to the country.

5. As we take the opportunity to acknowledge and appreciate the achievement of this wonder boy, I also consider it my cherished privilege to bring the achievement to the knowledge of Government of India and as a matter of immense pride to the National Commission of Minorities.
