

20 December, 1704

On this day, Guru Gobind Singh Ji left Anandpur Sahib along with his family to reach Ropar (in present-day Punjab) believing in the words of Aurangzeb written in the Quran. After his departure, the attack by Mughals and hill army started. The era of martyrdom started with the first martyrdom of Bhai Uday Singh, who was killed near Sirsa River. Sahibzada Ajit Singh Ji fought against the Mughal army and Bhai Bachittar Singh was injured. Guru Gobind Singh Ji was fearlessly leading the war, however, Guru Ji's family was separated and broken away during the war.

We remember the supreme sacrifice of Guru Gobind Singh Ji.
